

Hey Ese', AGC James Allhands Essay Contest

2017 James L. Allhands Essay Competition

Deadline for Submissions: November 15, 2016

WHO IS ELIGIBLE
Any full-time student who has attained a level status (freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior) year ABET or ACCET accredited university construction related engineering program.

Allhands Essay Competition Topic

STRATEGIES FOR REDUCING THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACTS OF CONSTRUCTION

AWARDS

FIRST PRIZE, STUDENT $1,000 and trip to AGC 2017 AGC Annual Convention. Prize includes round-trip airfare, ship tickets and lodging for five days.
FIRST PRIZE, FACULTY $500 and a trip for the faculty sponsor to the 2017 AGC Annual Convention and lodging for five days.
SECOND PRIZE, STUDENT $500
THIRD PRIZE, STUDENT $300

- Student essay advancing the technological, educational, or vocational expertise in construction
- Risks/Rewards of alternative delivery methods
- First Prize Student: $1,000 + trip to 2017 AGC convention
- First Prize, Faculty: $500 + trip for faculty sponsor to 2017 AGC Annual convention
- November 15, 2016 Deadline.

AGC Undergraduate & Graduate Scholarships

- For students enrolled in ACCCE or ABET accredited CM or construction-related engineering programs
- F/T student seeking a construction career
- Undergraduate, $2,500 per student per year Max,
 - Renewable for up to 3 years
- Graduate $3,750 per year up to $7,500
- Deadline: November 1, 2016.

ConsensusDocs®
BUILDING A BETTER WAY

Questions?

Brian Perlberg, Esq.
ConsensusDocs, Exec Dir.
Senior Counsel, Construction Law
AGC of America
bperlberg@ConsensusDocs.org

Phillip E. Beck, Esq.
Partner,
Smith, Currie & Hancock LLP
404-582-8028
pebeck@smithcurrie.com